THANK YOU

The Recreation Department and staff would like to express its sincere thanks to the Parks & Recreation Commission and to the City Council for their continued support.

THANK YOU

A special thanks to the Kingman Daily Miner, The Kingman Standard, Hometown Crier, Tri-State News, KAAA/KZZZ/KFLG and KGMN/K-99 radio stations, TV 36 and TV-77/ Gameover Productions for their continued support and coverage of the Kingman Parks & Recreation Department.

INTER-GOVERNMENTAL AGREEMENT (IGA)

Due to the IGA between the City of Kingman and the Kingman Unified School District #20 and with the Kingman Academy of Learning (KAOL), the Parks & Recreation Department is graciously thankful to each and every school that we have exchanged facilities with from year after year. With this agreement, it helps both the schools and the City to run successful programs and helps the tax payers by alleviating the cost of having to build more facilities. A special thank you goes to Kingman High School, Lee Williams High School, Kingman Middle School, White Cliffs Middle School, Manzanita Elementary, Hualapai Elementary, Palo Christi Elementary, Desert Willow, KAOL High School, KAOL Middle School, and KAOL Intermediate School.

QUILTING 101

Instructor: Pat McNally

If you are new to the Kingman area or want to make new “Quilting” friends, we are your place. Come join us for a fun filled session while we prepare for the fall and holiday season. We will be making inexpensive quilted items that can be given to friends and family this holiday season or you can keep them for your own enjoyment. These projects are suitable for both beginners and experienced quilters. All that is required from you is basic knowledge of sewing, a machine in good working order, sewing supplies and a desire to make fun, quilted items. Our first project will be a throw size quilt constructed from one jellyroll. A jellyroll is made from 20 or 30 strips of color coordinated fabrics, 2 ½” wide by the width of the fabric. They can be purchased at any quilt shop or online. A supply list will be furnished at the time of registration.

Location: Centennial Park Community Center
(Activity Room) – 3345 Harrison St.

TAMALE MAKING 101

Instructor: Linda Martinez

This four-hour workshop will guide you through the process of creating your own Hispanic holiday tradition of Tamale making. From the beginning steps of preparing the “masa” to stuffing with meat, then rolling the “oja”, and cooking to perfection. If you don’t understand some of these words, then come to class and learn what it all means. Tamales have been a holiday tradition for many years in the Hispanic community, which some of you may want to learn how to do. Participants will need to cook their own favorite pot roast of their liking and bring it to class with them along with all remaining broth in a container (broth will be used in class). Other required equipment is a blender, knife, small cutting board, and a large & medium spoon. The rest will be guided hand in hand with Linda taking you step by step. All other ingredients required and necessary supplies will be provided for you at class (Class is subject to an additional hour if needed).

Time: 2:00 – 6:00 p.m.
Ages: 14 & up
Cost: $40
Session 1: Saturday, September 24
Min: 4 Max: 5
Location: Centennial Park Community Center (Meeting Room/Kitchen) – 3345 Harrison St.

DANCE CLASSES

The Parks & Recreation Department is excited to offer a variety of dance classes. Emily brings a vast knowledge and experience in all forms of dance and is an excellent choreographer. She shows a true love for teaching kids in a positive and caring way. She has received many accolades from her current participants and their parents. A showcase will be performed at the end of the year Dance Recital. Children 6 years and older that are interested in Solos, duets, or trios at the Recital, may take part in private lessons for $20 per hour plus the cost of the costume. An additional cost will be required for each costume in each level of dance and will be up to the parent to purchase from an assigned vendor. Costume information will be available during the first week of class.

NEW!Broadway in the Hood Presents Steel Magnolias and The Neon Museum

Bring your best friend or several of your best friends and join us in a day trip to the Neon Museum, Broadway show, and lunch. "Steel Magnolias tells the story of six strong southern women and one heartwarming story- a story of friendship, love, sharing, determination, and sacrifice-a story based on a true event in the life of its author, Robert Harling." These ladies are regulars at Truvy's beauty salon in a small Louisiana town where they catch up on discussions about men, love, age, neighbors, children, and life, where they have learned that laughter is often the best medicine. This hilarious production will have you crying! The Neon Boneyard Museum has the historical signs of Vegas on display all in one location. Enjoy an hour guided tour inside the boneyard to learn the history behind some of Las Vegas' well known signs such as Lucky Cuss Motel, the Bow & Arrow Motel, The Silver Slipper, Society Cleaners, Binion's Horseshoe, the Normandie Motel, the Hacienda horse and rider, the Landmark and 5th Street Liquors. Enjoy lunch at the downtown award winning buffet Garden Court; located inside the Main Street Casino. All tickets, lunch, and transportation expenses are included. Transportation will be in City vans and participants will pick their seats based on the order registration is received. A deposit of $25 is due at time of registration and all final payments are due by November 7, 2016.

Special Events & HOLIDAY ACTIVITIES

46TH ANNUAL ANDY DEVINE DAYS PARADE

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24TH, 2016

It's that time of year where the Kingman community comes together to celebrate the Annual Andy Devine Days Parade and Rodeo. Participating in this annual event will make you feel like a part of the legend that has become Andy Devine Days. Each year entries in this parade celebrate Kingman's western heritage and its roots in the railroad, Route 66, and Ranching. Enjoy all that Kingman has to offer as we remember the past and look toward the future. Applications are now available at the Parks & Recreation Office located at 3333 N. Harrison, or by calling 757-7919. Applications also available on the web at www.cityofkingman.gov; and go to Parks and Recreation Department and look under the Forms and Information section to obtain an entry form. Everyone is welcome to participate and there is no application fee. Participants are strongly encouraged to design and build float entries around the current year's theme, "Ride'em Cowboy". Participation plaques are available for purchase to all parade entries for a $25 charge and must be paid at the time of application. Deadline to enter this year's parade is September 9th!

DRIVE-IN MOVIE NIGHT

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21

Arrivals Begin at 5:30pm

Movie Begins at 6:30pm

The Kingman Parks & Recreation Department is doing it again! If you missed out on the previous nights, now is your chance to experience the old days of a Drive-In Movie. You can sit in the comfort of your vehicle and enjoy time spent with family and friends. Movies will be shown on a large screen, downtown at Southside Park in the lower parking lot near baseball field #2 and the Animal Shelter. Concessions will be available. Raffles, games, and pre-movie music will be part of the evening event so arrive early. Entrance is allowed by vehicle and based on donation. Walks-In will also be permitted near the front of the screen by donation but must provide your own seating. Movie will begin at dark so arrive early to obtain a good parking spot and be part of the raffles. For movie title and more information, please contact the Parks & Recreation Department at 928-757-7919.

THE 16TH ANNUAL KINGMAN POLAR BEAR PLUNGE

SUNDAY, JANUARY 1ST, 2017 - 12:00 P.M. @ CENTENNIAL POOL (3333 HARRISON ST.)

The "Plunge" is now sixteen years and counting with participation increasing each year. What started out as a fun challenge has blossomed into a full scale specialty event to begin the New Year! The "Plunge" is open to anyone interested in starting off their new year in a "chilling" way by braving the near freezing waters of Centennial Pool. Several unknown prizes await brave swimmers at the bottom of the pool. The "Plunge" is FREE for everyone. Warm showers await all dippers at the events conclusion. The "Plunge" will take place at exactly Noon on New Year's Day, not a minute before or after the hour.

Note: The brisk water temperatures may not be suitable for everyone. If you have a heart condition or history of heart related problems, the Polar Bear Plunge may not be the activity for you to participate in. If unsure that the shock of cold water may be harmful to your health you should consult your physician prior to participating. All plungers do so at their own risk.

10th ANNUAL FALL FESTIVAL

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2016

1:00-5:00 P.M.

CENTENNIAL PARK

EVENT WRISTBAND $5 PRE-SALE/$7 AT EVENT

PRE-SALE WRISTBANDS ARE AVAILABLE OCTOBER 17 – 28 AT THE PARKS & RECREATION OFFICE

The 10th Annual Fall Festival will include many of the traditional Halloween activities for the whole family! The favorite youth Costume Contest, a Cup Cake Walk, Carnival Style Game Booths, Candy in the Hay, Pie Eating Contest, Arts & Crafts for kids, Hay Rides, Community Service Groups, Entertainment, Snack Bar and more! Awards will be given to all contest winners accordingly for each event & age. The Halloween Costume Contest will award the top 3 winners in each age division per category. Contest age divisions will be as follows: 3 to 4, 5 to 6, 7 to 8, and 9 to 12 years old. Categories will consist of Most Creative, which is a costume created by hand or unique in its own way; Most Traditional, a costume to follow the Halloween theme; Most Animated (3-8 years only), which is any cartoon, or fictional character; and Scariest (9 to 12 only), a costume of ghoulish or frightening nature. With the support of local sponsors, the contests and carnival game booths will continue to be FREE. Wristband will be required for all other activities. Please look for flyers and more information during the second week of October or call the Parks & Recreation Office at 757-7919.

SEARCHING FOR FALL FESTIVAL SPONSORS

The Parks & Recreation Department is looking for local businesses to assist in the procurement of awards for this year's 10th Annual Fall Festival. Your $300 donation will get you recognized at the event with signs & banners, placed on entry cards & flyers, and verbally announced throughout the event. We are also looking for product donations to be used as prizes for contest winners or raffle prizes. Sponsoring organizations are welcome to host a booth at the event with prior notification. If you are interested in becoming a sponsor for this year's event, please contact Yvonne at the Parks & Recreation Office at 692-3111 or Beth Matthews at 692-3109. Your help is greatly appreciated.

SANTA'S CALLING

REGISTER BY MONDAY, DECEMBER 5

Santa and his North Pole Elves will be calling your child this holiday season after filling out the Santa's Calling Form. Santa's Calling is for children 3 to 9 years who would like to receive a call from Santa or one of his helpers. Children should be able to communicate with Santa or his elves during a phone call (adult help is okay). Forms will be available at City Hall, the Recreation Department, and through local schools beginning November 14. Forms must be completed by a parent or guardian. You may return the form to any of our Red North Pole Mailboxes located at City Hall, Centennial Park Recreation Department, and Fire Station #3 off of Gordon. All forms must be returned by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, December 5; mailboxes will be collected and returned to the North Pole. Calls will be placed between November 28-December 21 (no choice of calling date). Santa is looking for volunteers to assist with calls, so if you're interested and can help Santa, please call the North Pole Hotline at 757-7919.

Letters To Santa

Attention all kids! Santa's Elves are here and will be delivering your Christmas Greetings personally to the North Pole from November 16 to December 4. Santa has promised to return a letter to every boy & girl who writes him. To receive a letter from Santa, senders must send a letter to Santa and provide a self-addressed stamped envelope. Your letters can be deposited in the holiday mailbox located at the Parks & Rec. Office or mailed to the address below; please allow 2 weeks for delivery. Note to parents: this is NOT a "presents or gift receiving" program.
