TWO CULTURES ONE WORLD

ABOUT THE FILM

Seeking to build a bridge of mutual understanding and friendship, a Canadian-Egyptian entrepreneur living in Switzerland decides to reach out to the very people who fear him. He travels across the United States to find Americans concerned about an Islamic threat and makes them an intriguing offer: a Free Trip to Egypt.

The initial reactions range from disbelief to hostility, but eventually a diverse group from various backgrounds is selected, including: a teacher, a police officer, a Marine veteran, a single mom, a preacher and a beauty pageant queen. All have their preconceptions but are receptive and courageous enough to embark on the adventure of a lifetime.

Soon enough, the band of travelers arrives in Egypt where the Americans are paired with local Egyptians just as diverse as they are. What happens next? The answers are provocative, surprising, funny, magical, emotional, revealing, enlightening and ultimately life-changing — in other words, all things human — in this profoundly original and inspirational feature-length documentary.

This journey ended up inspiring the global initiative #PledgeToListen for everyone to be a part of.

ABOUT #PledgeToListen

#PledgeToListen is inspired by the documentary FREE TRIP TO EGYPT which brought people together from completely different backgrounds, religious views and political opinions to see what could happen when people connected at a human level.
