

Hello!

Thank you for your interest in the 2019 Pintail Slough Junior Waterfowl Camp. This camp is designed to give juniors the opportunity to experience a full waterfowl hunt, including: practicing safe shotgun use, learning waterfowl hunting laws, identifying and hunting waterfowl, field dressing and preparing waterfowl meat, and sharing stories from the hunt with friends around a warm evening campfire. The aspiration of this program is to inspire juniors and their friends and families to spend more time recreating outdoors, and to foster within them an appreciation of wildlife, nature, and our hunting and fishing heritage.

There will be great emphasis on hunter safety, especially relating to firearm use. As you register, please keep in mind that the camp begins with a mandatory shotgun use and hunter safety clinic beginning at 2:00 PM Friday, January 4, 2019. At this clinic, it is important that you and the instructors make sure that your junior hunter is equipped with an appropriately sized shotgun, and can safely handle and shoot the firearm. If the shotgun instructors feel that any junior cannot safely take part in the hunt, that junior will not be able to participate. I thank you all for helping us to keep the safety of all those involved in this weekend a priority. During the camp no firearms are to be handled without a camp instructor or mentor present.

The juniors will be the only individuals allowed to hunt waterfowl; however the other camp activities are open to all members of the family. Join your junior hunter in a lesson about waterfowl identification, or a clinic on field dressing and preparing waterfowl meat. Friends and family members are encouraged to enjoy the last weekend of the mourning dove season, try their hand at bagging Eurasian doves or Gambel's quail, or go on a hunt for those sneaky cottontails and wily coyotes (see http://www.azgfd.gov/h_f/hunting_units_15d.shtml for information on where to hunt in GMU 15D). There are also numerous great fishing opportunities nearby, which provide fun for all ages. This truly is a weekend of outdoor enjoyment for the entire family. I hope that by the time the camp wraps-up Sunday afternoon, everyone who came will have many new friends, memories, and stories to share back at home.

Sincerely,

Chad Villamor
