JOHNS TANK TRAIL #94

GENERAL INFORMATION: This trail is located next to one of Prescott National Forest's busiest recreation areas – Lynx Lake. This is a very pleasant hike that takes you uphill from Lynx Lake, escaping into a remote setting. Hiking is mostly in the shade of oak, juniper and pine forest. Be ready for up hills and down hills!

CAUTION: This trail is open to hikers. Please be considerate of others - slow down and know when to yield the trail

ACCESS AND TRAILHEAD LOCATION: This trail is an "internal trail" which means it can only be accessed from other trails. In this case either TR311 or TR95. This ROG will only address access from TR311. From Hwy 69 go south approximately 2.2 miles on Walker Rd to Lynx Lake North Shore, FR 611, on the east side of road. Continue on this road until it ends at a parking area (about 1.5 miles). At the southeast end of the parking area, locate and follow the paved sidewalk downhill to TR 311, the Lakeshore Trail which skirts Lynx Lake. Head north (left) on TR 311 and continue to the concrete spillway. Follow TR 311 along front of spillway. TR 94 goes east (left) just past the spillway .

TRAVEL TIME: From downtown Prescott, about 15 minutes to Lynx Lake North Shore parking area.

ROAD CONDITIONS: Paved road is suitable for passenger cars.

HIKING TIME: 1.5 hours LENGTH: 2 miles (round trip) DIFFICULTY: Moderate USE: Moderate

NOTES : Recreation fee required at Lynx Lake North Shore except on Wednesday. When trying to cross the spillway section on TR 311 during periods of high water, this section of trail may not be accessible.

RECOMMENDED SEASONS OF USE: Spring, summer, fall and winter
